showers; warmer; southerly winds.

BULL

If the Czar of Russia wishes to pick up a few points on tyrannical absolutism he should read the rules of the St. Louis Board of Fire Underwriters.

All that seems to be needed to turn the St. Louis Board of Fire Underwriters into a Squeers' school for grown-up boys is the adoption of a by-law providing for the spanking of disobedient agents.

The Missouri office-seekers are proving that it is possible to live on hope for a long time, but they are also proving that it is most unsatisfactory as a regular diet. Their way forces indicate a twentieth-quintile of mind.

From the comfortable envelopment of blankets at night and light overcoats in the daytime St. Louisans may read with complacency of the sufferings of sunburned Chicagoans and summer resort victims.

MAJOR NOONAN's resolution to free St.
Louis of "every ring and boss it possesses" will receive the endorsement of every St. Louisian who is not a bore or a bigot. More power to the Major for that kind of work.

The officer the President goes to Deer Park and the longer he stays the more the rulings of the Interior Department will get back into the old rut favoring the land grabbers. Deer Park is their headquarters and STEVE ELKINS is their prophet.

It may be possible for an insurance agent who is a member of the Board of Fire Underwriters to call his soul his own when no one is within hearing, but it is certain that nothing else belongs to him or can be used by him without permission of the board.

The zinc ice cream freezer got in its work on the inhabitants of the Canadian village of Seeley's Bay last week. About 200 pioniers were seriously poisoned, but fortunately no deaths occurred. The fact that metallized ice cream is not conducive to health and long life will doubtless become thoroughly known in time.

The trouble at CARNEGIE's Homestead Mills, which threatened to involve all the mills in the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel-workers, has been compromised on a basis which secures full recognition of the association. But to obtain it the men had to agree to a wage reduction averaging 23 per cent and to a periodical readjustment based on the average selling price of the mill product.

One of the excellent charities stimulated into benevolent activity by the SUN-DAY Post-DISPATCH Christmas Tree is the Sanitarium of the Children's Aid Society for poor children. Mothers with children under 5 years of age suffering from disease or the debilitating effects of living in crowded tenements or of having insufficient and improper food, may take them to this pleasant home, where there is plenty of pure air and good food, until they recover. There is no more deserving charity than this.

It appears from Col. DONN PIATT's letter to the WORLD explaining his withdrawal from the editorship of Belford's Magazine, that the aforesaid magazine was, like the Democratic National Committee, owned by "a syndicate of Democrats able to back their convictions with an unlimited amount of money." They were not publishing a magazine with any intention of increasing the popular prejudice against the rings, trusts, monopoly combinations and other forms of robbery which the American eagle is hatching out just now. Col. PIATT's rough way of speaking about these things savored of disrespect, if not of disloyalty, to the business interests of the magazine owners, and so he dropped out, just as the editor of the New York Star, or any other Democratic organ owned by a Republican Pinto, we have to do, if he published anything tending to the defeat of the Republican party or the collection of the Pacific Railroad debt.

A TYRANNICAL TRUST.

It was doubtless a surprise to the majority of the citizens of St. Louis to learn that no insurance agent belonging to the Board of Fire Underwriters could place a policy and that no property owner could secure insurance without the special permission of the board.

It was surely a greater surprise to learn that an insurance agent may be cut off from all privilege of doing business or a property-owner may be denied the privilege of securing insurance, that a boycott absolutely cutting off all intercourse and extending to moral support may be declared against an agent or a property-owner by a two-thirds vote of members present at a meeting of the board. Yet that is the outrageous power exercised by the board is shown conclusively by the publication of its rules and practices in yesterday's SUN-DAY Post-DISPATCH.

In order to establish its absolute control of the insurance business the board establishes a star-chamber method of procedure, which enables one agent to play the secret spy on any other agent without fear of detection. It also acts upon the theory utterly contrary to principles of right and justice that an accused agent labors under a presumption of guilt until proven innocent and compels him to give bond for the penalty before he goes on trial. It also includes the assured in the condemnation of his works.

plaintiff, a fugitive prosecutor, he appealed to the Supreme Court against the New York summons commanding him to appear as a witness. His appeal was heard and dismissed, and still he skulks, and still we witness the queer spectacle of a lot of newspapers apparently eager to pay him $100,000, but unable to induce him to speak the word necessary to entitle him to the money. Not even for the tempting sum of $100,000 will he go on the witness-stand and deny that he wrote the blocks-of-five letter just as it was published.

THE change for the worse in the condition of WILKIE COLLINS reported in our cable news yesterday is believed by his physicians and friends to foreshadow the close of the popular novelist's life.
His last work before his attack became so severe as to preclude all mental or physical effort was to complete and revise "Blind Love," the novel now running in the SUNDAY Post-DISPATCH. Whether he rallies or not from this attack it is stated positively that his literary laborers are at an end and that "Blind Love" will be his final production. Those who have read the manuscript pronounce it one of his strongest efforts. The third installment of the story appeared in yesterday's SUNDAY Post-DISPATCH and all who read it cannot fail to have recognized in the first chapters the wonderful ingenuity and power of creative fancy which give absorbing interest to all of his works.

A Rag Producing Tax.

From the Boston Herald.

At the dinner given on Monday evening, at the Algonquin Club, to the members of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, Senator Keegan made a statement which is said to have been highly appreciated. After referring to the valuable information that the committee had listened to during its visit in Boston, he said that he felt strongly drawn to this part of the country, for the reason that he came from a State that raised much of the cotton that the mills of Massachusetts worked into cloth; that raised more wool than any other State, and this, too, was largely converted into cloth; that it produced a product, and, gentlemen," he said, addressing his Massachusetts hosts, "it's we on the tariff tax of 4½ per cent, I venture to say that Texas will also be in a position to furnish you mills with its full scale of rags." The representatives of Boston who were present at the dinner quickly caught the force of this suggestion and indorsed Senator Keegan's economic conclusions with unstinted applause.

Rich Pension Grabbers.

From the New York World.

Manderson is neither a disabled man nor a nobody. As compared with the great majority who pay the taxes he is rich. He is a Senator of the United States at a salary of $5,000 a year. He ought to be ashamed to be in Switzerland at the age of 85, was once married, and is the possessor of an income of $1,000 a year. He is a man of means, and he himself evinced an uncommon talent for economy." Yet she afterward became his wife.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Our Little Vein Gericht.

The people of St. Louis have just cause to look to the Post-DISPATCH for all needed reforms for the suppression of vice, etc. Its past deeds have become historical, and the benefits the city has derived from its wise counsel can never be overestimated.

I have read with much interest your "exposition" of that greatest of modern monopolies, the "insurance trust," or as it is more generally known, "The Board of Fire Underwriters."

Happening to know a little of it inside a committee of the House of Representatives I can only say that your three columns of denunciation of its methods have been drawn "exceedingly mild." No sooner had I read your expose of the "board" than I was to hear of the contemptuous attitude of the "board" than he is boycotted, especially in a business sense, and the entire nation is to be delirious with rage.

Another reason why I am willing to drop the pen and retire is the utter hopelessness of such a contest. The people of St. Louis have a right to be educated, to be informed, to be informed, and to be educated. The anti-trust law will be a great benefit to the people of St. Louis.

MULDOONISM AS MEDICINE.

The rumor that Secretary BLAINE is about to retire from the Cabinet on account of bodily ailments suggests that there was one lesson in the recent Sullivan-Kilrain prize-fight which may be made valuable to mankind in general.

The teacher who is entitled to the honor of having squeezed a gem of instruction out of a slugging match is WILLIAM MUL-DOON, the trainer of the champion. When SULLIVAN took SULLIVAN to his farm at Belfast, N. Y., the prize-fighter had been pronounced a physical wreck, who would never again enter the ring in fit condition. Disposition had blotted his flesh and impaired his organs. Disease supplemented the work of debauchery and rendered him "as weak as a kitten." Muldoon brought back vigor and health to his organs and the power of a giant to his muscles. He did it by denying him things inimical to health and giving him things wholesome and conducive to health. He cut off his excessive supply of liquor and gave him water with just enough malt beverage to stimulate digestion.
He cut off unwholesome food and gluttony and gave him moderate but sufficient quantities of food which made blood, muscle and bone. He gave him plenty of ozone, plenty of sleep and plenty of exercise to keep his blood circulating for the refreshing and building up of tissues and to acquire strength and endurance.
He kept the safety valves of his skin clear. In a word he substituted intelligent guidance of his mode of living with a view to securing health, strength and endurance for reckless disregard of hygienic principles.

Freedom Defined.

President by Bowdoin College.

Freedom from taxation by a foreign Parliament and from the domination of a foreign King is the achievement of the past. Freedom from taxation for the benefit of favored classes and from the subordination of national to partisan and private interests is the duty of the present. Freedom to pay taxes solely for the support of an honest and economical government and to exert the power of the citizen directly and effectively for the public good is the ideal of the future.

MEN OF MARK.

MR. JULIAN HAWTHORNE says he didn't write the "Arthur Richmond" letters.

BALTIMORE graduated this year the first colored pupils ever sent out by a colored high school.

The wealth of Frederick Douglass, United States Minister to Hayti, is estimated at $300,000.

IRON EAGLE FEATHER, a Sioux Indian, has just completed the scientific course at Dickinson College.

LUIS SILVA, who was a doctor in the Independent Army of Bolivia, is still alive. He has reached his 12th year.

MANHON says that he does not want to be Governor of Virginia. He is satisfied with running the Administration.

GOV. CLEVELAND is now sitting as referee in a case involving $100,000, wherein a Boston doctor is charged with crookedness.

SECRETARY BUSH says he couldn't think of accepting the Percheron mare, "Maryland Daisy," which Gen. Agassiz offered to present to him.

JOSÉ DE LA ROSA, who lives at San Diego, is the oldest printer in California. He will be 100 years old next January, and printed a paper at Monterey in 1853.

HANNIBAL HAMILIN, now in his 81st year, writes to a friend in Washington that his health was never better and that he can walk with a cane from ten to fifteen miles a day.

MR. GLADSTONE has increased his allowance of wine for dinner, rarely drinking less than a pint of his favorite port now. His eyes have quantity affects him less than a half pint a day.

WHEN DUDLEY brought suit for $100,000 against several New York papers for publishing his "blocks-of-five" letter he practically confessed the genuineness and the authorship of the letter by immediately running away to Washington to keep from being called as a witness in a case involving $100,000, wherein a Boston doctor is charged with crookedness.

GOV. ADOLPHUS AMES, who married Miss Butler, the daughter of Gen. Benjamin F.

Baxter, and who was Senator from Mississippi from 1870 to 1873, is now a commission merchant in Brooklyn, N. Y.

GOV. ROSS, formerly of Kansas, and one of the United States Senators who stood by Andrew Johnson in the impeachment proceedings, is now employed as a printer in the office of the Santa Fe New Mexico.

MR. JULIAN PAUNCEFOOT has taken a scientific interest in the American game of poker since he came to this country. On the steamer in which he crossed from England he first saw the game played. Since then he has been looking into it in a scholarly way and says that it is the crowning triumph of cards.

WOMEN OF THE WORLD.

The prettiest girl at Saratoga is said to be a Cuban named Munro.

It is said that the wife of Count Tolstoi, the Russian novelist, is staying at Atlantic City.

MRS. BISHOP WARREN and her son, WILL HILL, have given $10,000 to the Denver University.

MRS. CATHERINE ATER, aged 75, only sister of Gen. George Crook, is dying at her home, at Dayton, O., from paralysis.

QUEEN VICTORIA is not fond of American girls. She considers them too flirtatious and does not like the way they dress.

MRS. TRUAX of Saratoga, whose stage name was Mine, Schott, has invented a carriage which can be propelled on land or water by electricity.

PRINCESS STEPHANIE, widow of the late Austrian Crown Prince, will carry to her grave a scar given by a blow which he dealt her in one of his fits.

MRS. Z. CHANDLER of Michigan is building a house on Sixteenth street which, when completed, will be one of the handsomest residences in Washington.

land, with a foresight and courage worthy of a queen, was the first prominent woman to recognize that the bustle's day of usefulness was past.

TWO AMERICAN girls who will shortly wed will be the first to be married by the United States marriage commissioners.

MISS GWENDOLYN CALDWELL, foundress of the Catholic University at Washington, and Miss CATHERINE FERNANDEZ of New York, will be married on Saturday, Aug. 12, at the church of the former.
